

Change The World

Drew Sycamore

Sometimes, I feel nothing is going as planned
Realizing that most things are out of my hands
And all that I've got is the feeling I know
That I am vibration wherever I go

Then that moment comes, and everything's clear

I've been looking for love in all the wrong places
All that I need is someone like you
If you're looking for changes, start from a place where
You just let love change the world for you

Sometimes, I get lost in a world of my own
Stuck in a way to be proving a point
No woman's an island, no (It's true)

It's all about who is next to you, yeah

I've been looking for love in all the wrong places
All that I need is someone like you
If you're looking for changes, start from a place where
You just let love change the world for you

I've been looking for love in all the wrong places
All that I need is someone like you
If you're looking for changes, start from a place where
You just let love change the world for you

I've been looking for love in all the wrong places
All that I need is someone like you
If you're looking for changes, start from a place where
You just let love change the world for you

Ooh, let love change the world for you
Ooh, let love change the world for you
Ooh, let love change the world for you
Let love change the world for you
