

Lonely Heat

Drew Sycamore

Could you let some love back into your heart?
You could look at me the way you used to Unintentional, too emotional
I don't even know what you want anymore

My baby's yeah, my baby's no
He said he loves me but he let me go
My baby's yeah, my baby's no
He said he loves me

All you're giving me is lonely heat, uh
No taking down your firewall firewall
Now all I get is lonely heat, uh
Now all I get is lonely heat, ooh

Felt like love last night, now you're hot as ice
Two-dimensional, ooh
I can't get through, irresistible, so illogical
I don't even know what you want anymore

My baby's yeah, my baby's no (No, no, no)
He said I'm perfect but he let me go
My baby's yeah, my baby's no (No, no, no)
He said he loves me

All you're giving me is lonely heat, uh
No taking down your firewall firewall
Now all I get is lonely heat
All I get is lonely heat
You're standing right in front of me
Ooh, all you're giving me are memories
Do you remember holding me?
Now all I get is lonely heat
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

You know I'm burning up, yeah I'm burning from the heat
You know I'm burning up, yeah I'm burning from the heat
You know I'm burning up, yeah I'm burning from the heat
You know I'm burning up

All you're giving me is lonely heat, uh
No taking down your firewall firewall
Now all I get is lonely heat
All I get is lonely heat
You're standing right in front of me
Ooh, all you're giving me are memories
Ooh, do you remember holding me? Uh
Now all I get is lonely heat (all I get is lonely heat)
