

Lost Myself

Drew Sycamore

Here we go

Talk to me girl
He said: "Come over here
Won't you whisper sweet lies to me?"
Talk to me girl
You light the moon up

Nothing but words
Just the sum of your fears
How you lay it all out for me
It's what you deserve
You light the room up
Uh-uh-yeah-yeah

I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself in the heart of somebody else
I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself with somebody
Lost myself in the heart of somebody else
(Somebody, somebody else)

Show me the world
Am I still a dark horse?
Won't you say it out loud for me?
Show me the world if I ever wake up

But this time I'm full of regret
And if I just stay 'cause you ask me to quit
For all the good times that I'd love to forget
I say: "Ah"

I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself in the heart of somebody else
I just lost myself with somebody
I just lost myself with somebody
Lost myself in the heart of somebody else
(Somebody, somebody else)

With somebody (Ah)
With somebody
I just lost myself in the heart of somebody else
