

Perfect Disaster

Drew Sycamore

You're like Russian roulette
With five bullets
I put my money on red
But the odds say I'll lose it
Oh, your lies are so sweet
Jealousy so romantic
We fight so beautifully
So I just gotta have it

With you, I'm gonna die young
But without you nothing's fun
And I know that I should run
But I put my money on red
With you, I'm gonna die young
The heart wants the things it wants
You know that you should run
But you put your money on red 'cause

First time you laid eyes on me
That second it was tragedy
Third day we were meant to be
Before we were a perfect disaster
Five days in a row
I'm waking up to six missed calls
In seven days forgive it all
And round it goes as perfect disaster-saster-saster
Won't you come back home faster, faster? Yeah

If you settle for safe
Hearts won't break
What a boring mistake
You know real love when it aches
When I don't answer your call
Boy, you start to panic
At the end of it all
Guess we love it dramatic

With you, I'm gonna die young
But without you nothing's fun
I know that I should run
But I put my money on red
With you, I'm gonna die young
The heart wants the things it wants
You know that you should run
But you put your money on red 'cause

First time you laid eyes on me
That second it was tragedy
Third day we were meant to be
Before we were a perfect disaster
Five days in a row
I'm waking up to six missed calls
In seven days forgive it all
And round it goes as perfect disaster-saster-saster
Won't you come back home faster, faster? Yeah

Tell me where we go after, after, after

Could you give me an answer, answer, yeah?
Tell me where we go after, after, after
I can't go any faster, faster, faster, faster

First time you laid eyes on me
That second it was tragedy
Third day we were meant to be
Before we were a perfect disaster
Five days in a row
I'm waking up to six missed calls
In seven days forgive it all
And round it goes as perfect disaster-saster-saster
Won't you come back home faster, faster? Yeah
