

The Hardest Thing To Do

Drew Sycamore

All that we had
Is finally severed
Good things and bad
I'm no longer tethered
The remedy's reason
And I'm disarray
Unless I am sleeping
You won't stay away

The hardest thing to do
Is to have your heart broken
The hardest thing to do
Is to have your heart broken (Oh-oh-oh)
And believe in love again (Love again)

Now, where do I go? (Where do I go?)
If I'm not your lover (Oh, where?)
I know, I don't have a hold on you
But I don't want no other (No)
When hope is a stranger (Ah)
Who looks just like you (Ah)
It feels like I'll never, uh
Find somebody new (Uh-uh)

The hardest thing to do
Is to have your heart broken
The hardest thing to do
Is to have your heart broken (Oh-oh-oh)
And believe in love again (Love again)
And believe in love again
