

Puttin' People On The Moon

Drive-By Truckers

Mary Alice had a baby and he looked just like I did
We got married on a Monday and I been working ever since Every week down at the Ford Plant but now they say they're shut ting down
Goddamned Reagan in the White House and no one there gives a da mn

Double Digit unemployment, TVA be shutting soon
While over there in Huntsville, They puttin' people on the moon

So I took to runnin' numbers for this man I used to know
And I sell a few narcotics and I sell a little blow I ain't getting rich now but I'm gettin' more than by It's really tough to make a living but a man just got to try

If I died in Colbert County, Would it make the evening news?
They too busy blowin' rockets, Puttin' people on the moon

Mary Alice quit askin' why I do the things I do
I ain't sayin' that she likes it, but what else I'm gonna do?
If I could solve the world's problems I'd probably start with h ers and mine
But they can put a man on the moon
And I'm stuck in Muscle Shoals just barely scraping by Mary Alice got cancer just like everybody here

Seems everyone I know is gettin' cancer every year
And we can't afford no insurance, I been 10 years unemployed
So she didn't get no chemo so our lives was destroyed
And nothin' ever changes, the cemetery gets more full
And now over there in Huntsville, even NASA's shut down too

Another Joker in the White House, said a change was comin' roun d
But I'm still workin' at The Wal Mart and Mary Alice, in the gr ound
And all them politicians, they all lyin' sacks of shit
They say better days upon us but I'm sucking left hind tit
And the preacher on the TV says it ain't too late for me
But I bet he drives a Cadillac and I'm broke with some hungry m ouths to feed

I wish I'z still an outlaw, was a better way of life
I could clothe and feed my family still have time to love my pr etty wife
And if you say I'm being punished. Ain't he got better things t o do?
Turnin' mountains into oceans Puttin' people on the moon

Turnin' mountains into oceans Puttin' people on the moon