

Ian McLagan

Drivin' N' Cryin'

Last time that I saw you
You were carrying your gear in the rain
Down the alley at Yard Dog
After playin' all day with your friends

The first time that I heard you
It was The Faces "Ooh La La"
I bought it at the White Hand Pantry
I played it all night long
(Come on, dance with me!)

I was sittin' with the rock 'n' roll road dog
Who's been traveling all of his life
He's seen a lot of me come and go
I asked him for some advice

He said, "Some people, they do one thing
Talk about it all of their lives
But some people, they keep doin'
It's what keeps you alive"
(Hey!)

Last time that I saw you
You were carrying your gear in the rain
Down the alley at Yard Dog
After playin' all day with my friends

Some people, they do one thing
Talk about it all of their lives
But Ian McLagan keeps doin'
It's what keeps him alive
(That's what I'm talkin' about!)

Ooh la la
Ooh la la
Ooh la la
