(Census, what you cookin')

Whoa, whoa whoa whoa

Torn heart, fuck it I'm a rockstar nigga
She a porn star and she brought some pop stars with her
I'ma float away, off these drugs go figure
I need another, show me love
I throw away my feelings
Sad case, yeah I know you want to play me like an arcade
Yeah, I know you wouldn't save me on my worst day
When I'm roaming around, and got nobody to trust
Don't got nobody to call right now
Sad case, yeah I know you want to play me like an arcade
Yeah, I know you wouldn't save me on my worst day
When I'm roaming around, and got nobody to trust
Don't got nobody to call right now

Heart ache, this hoe telling I'm the cause of all her headaches
She's so high and I'm so lost in here let's party, party
Have a good night, I hardly
My heart in the ground, I'm stuck cause you never around
My thoughts go out when I think of you some how
I know I'm on my own but I'm needing you right now
Torn heart but it's me and you right now

Torn heart, fuck it I'm a rockstar nigga
She a porn star and she brought some pop stars with her
I'ma float away, off these drugs go figure
I need another, show me love
I throw away my feelings
Sad case, yeah I know you want to play me like an arcade
Yeah, I know you wouldn't save me on my worst day
When I'm roaming around, and got nobody to trust
Don't got nobody to call right now
Sad case, yeah I know you want to play me like an arcade
Yeah, I know you wouldn't save me on my worst day
When I'm roaming around, and got nobody to trust
Don't got nobody to call right now

Call right now
