

FEELS LIKE A DREAM

Dro Kenji

You don't call too often
Yeah
(Rio!)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
(Census, what you cookin'?)

I don't love too well (Well)
You don't call too often (Often)
Wake up from this tale (Tale)
Tell me I'm too honest

Baby, won't you wake from this dream?
No lyin', all honesty
Baby, won't you wake from this dream?
I'll admit, I need you
You hate me, still need you
I'm hopin'
Someday I'll wake up from this dream (Whoa-oh-oh, oh)

Ayy, far, far, far, going far, far away
Said I live too fast, I'm just tryna runaway
And my car so fast, never come in last place
And my bitch so bad, always tryna show face
When it all goes bad, who gon' hold your place?
When the rain come down, who gon' wipe your face?
If I call you now will I kill your high?
I don't really get too high anyways 'cause

I don't love too well (I don't love too well)
You don't call too often (You don't call too often)
Wake up from this tale (Wake up from this tale)
Tell me I'm too honest

Baby, won't you wake from this dream?
No lyin', all honesty
Baby, won't you wake from this dream? (Whoa, whoa-oh-oh)
I'll admit, I need you
You hate me, still need you
I'm hopin'
Someday I'll wake up from this dream

Someday I'll break out of your hell (Someday I'll break out, oh, oh, hell)
Shit just not what it seems
All my demons lined up in sync
They all just work against me
I can't fall unless you're down
My heart is always aching
I can't fall unless you're mine, all mine, 'cause (I can't fall unless you're mine)

I don't love too well
You don't call too often
Wake up from this tale
Tell me I'm too honest

Baby, won't you wake from this dream?
No lyin', all honesty (Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa)

Baby, won't you wake from this dream?
I'll admit, I need you
You hate me, still need you
I'm hopin'
Someday I'll wake up from this dream

Someday I'll wake up from this dream
