

Okay

Dro Kenji

Take one step away
Take one step away

I be 'noid, do you know why?
'Cause niggas tryna take my damn life, life
Knowing they cannot get up with me but they'll still try
Ayy, lead the way 'cause I don't know where to go
These niggas fake and I know
I don't trust a soul, not a nigga nor a bitch, nah
I pray that nobody knows about the damage on my heart, woah
If you take one step away
I'll take a look at all my problems, then I might be okay

We are all on the same adventure
So they can't tell me I can't win 'cause they don't really know shit
No, they can't tell me I'm gon' lose 'cause all this cash comin
' in
And bitch, I bet that I count blue until the day that I end
I know my mama hate the fact I keep a pipe up on me
She told me slow down on them drugs before the devil call me
I see the opps, I blow they spot up like a kamikaze Like, why they hatin'? Fuck his bitch and send her back to the street
Them niggas hell, but I keep shells, so don't you push me to my limit
I think she tryna have my child, she go so wild when I'm up in it
You know I can't stay here, lay here
I'm just tryna find my place here (Find your way here)

I be 'noid, do you know why?
'Cause niggas tryna take my damn life, life
Knowing they cannot get up with me but they'll still try
Ayy, lead the way 'cause I don't know where to go
These niggas fake and I know
I don't trust a soul, not a nigga nor a bitch, nah
I pray that nobody knows about the damage on my heart, woah
If you take one step away
I'll take a look at all my problems, then I might be okay
