

SHALLOW

Dro Kenji

Tell me life's shallow
I'm the one that paddle
I lost all my friends but I got faith in these hollows
Fuck that ho, I'm rich
Smoking strong with this model
So you can't lead me on
I be looking for you like it's still a way
I just can't see your wrong
I've been waiting for you like I'm still awake
And been up like all night long
I be looking for you like it's still a way
I just can't see your wrong
I've been waiting for you like I'm still awake
And been up like all night long

I can read your mind in here but you don't say like I'm psychic, crystal ball
(Okay, okay, okay)
I can pull this shit like move the world around me and knock my worries off
Ayy, tell me secrets, I don't hurt 'em
I get high to calm the storm
Lie to me like I ain't live it
Tell me what you cry for
How the fuck is this the limit?
Tell me who you'd die for
How the fuck is this the limit?
Tell me who you cry for

Whoa, oh-oh
(Won't you tell me who'd you die for?)
Whoa, oh-oh, oh
(Tell me who you cry for)

Tell me life's shallow
I'm the one that paddle
I lost all my friends but I got faith in these hollows
Fuck that ho, I'm rich
Smoking strong with this model
So you can't lead me on
I be looking for you like it's still a way
I just can't see your wrong
I've been waiting for you like I'm still awake
And been up like all night long
I be looking for you like it's still a way
I just can't see your wrong
I've been waiting for you like I'm still awake
And been up like all night long
