

(Welcome to 1st Class)
(Census, what you cookin'?)

Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
Don't know where to go
Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
Hurt that I used to know

Just the same old things, it still won't change, ooh
I don't know about that love shit
I'd just rather throw my feelings all away
'Cause all the times I had my brain thinking 'bout your lies
How you don't have shit to say when I risk my life?
Blood all in my eyes, baby, I just wanna fight
In the battles of the century, so I'm never surprised

Won't you save your love for me?
You never was the type
I do not remember clearly, I was very high
She said I'm always very high
When you broke you my heart in pieces, had to freeze that shit in ice
Sometimes it get hard to breathe when you just worry every night

Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
Don't know where to go
Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
Hurt that I used to know

Where's the bottle?
Maybe I'm the bother
Syrup in my soda, I get high to solve the problem
Offer no condolences, I'm killing all my monsters
Fully auto tommy, bitch, I came through like a monster
It's still your turn, show me different then them others

Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
Don't know where to go
Wake up wide awake from your worst nightmares
When your eyes shut, teardrops fallin' down your face and when you
Feel your heart start to grow cold
