

Feeble Games

DROELOE

I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong

This is fear, division, who takes the lead?
One is wounded, one will ever bleed
But I don't play these feeble games
Built on fear, that's not my way
Though I relate, I'd rather stay here with you

On the playfield of integrity
Where vulnerability is brave
It is there I hope to meet you
Because together we won't cave

I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong

I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong

(I'm living in a place I don't belong)
(I don't exist, I know what's wrong)
(I'm living in a place I don't belong)
(I don't exist)

But I don't play these feeble games
Built on fear, that's not my way
Though I relate, I'd rather stay here with you

I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
I'm living in a place I don't belong
I don't exist, I know what's wrong
