

Holiday

DROELOE

The game is up
Complacency ping in
With my last penny charged
Apart from that I'm spent

So they proposed and I agreed
Some time away is what they need
I pack their bags, they learn to leave
An empty mind, a room to breath

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday

So they proposed and I agreed
Some time away is what they need
I pack their bags, they learn to leave
An empty mind, a room to breath

So they proposed and I agreed
Some time away is what they need
I pack their bags, they learn to leave
An empty mind, a room to breath

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday

My senses went away
But it's all good
They're on holiday
