

Homebound

DROELOE

So much space, but still, you can't breathe
I ask to stay, but all you do is leave

Keep staring at you
Alone in the crowd
Free from the noise
The silence gets louder
Louder

And honestly, I want to be a part of this
In between the layers of your loneliness
It's where I'm feeling you near
I'll be here

I'll be here (I'll be here)
I'll be here (I'll be here)
Here, here, here... (I'll be here)

The space between will slowly disappear
I'll be here
I'll be here

I'll be here
I'll be here
I'll Be here
