

Treasure Map

DROELOE

Things will start and things will end
Doesn't mean you need to worry
Pick up a pencil draw a line
Between the places where it's burried
To make sure that I will find how I got here
And to believe in where I'm going
Take all the pieces fill my chest
And bare this treasure ever glowing

Things will start and things will end
Doesn't mean you need to worry
Pick up a pencil draw a line
Between the places where it's burried
To make sure that I will find how I got here
And to believe in where I'm going
Take all the pieces fill my chest
And bare this treasure ever glowing
