

Imagine

Drop City Yacht Club

Yeah, close my eyes and paint a perfect picture in my mind
The pen is like the brush [?], straight to hold designs
So every line is like my final destination
Except I never die so tell heaven I'ma be late in
I really keep 'em waitin', I got some things to handle still
I tap dance, I'm tryin' not to slip on banana peels
For real, they told me life could be an [?]
As quoted, but like the keys on a piano field
As noted, hey, these studies gonna show 'em
Rain cloud only sucks when you're below it, so blow it away
Like fresh air with no umbrellas here
These Californian girls like the sun up in their hair
Me, I'm just addicted to the glare
Until we finally meet 'em, blowin' kisses in the air
Yeah, until we stand at the peak
I guess we're rainin' sand on the beach, imagine

Imagine if you lucky, just hit the lotto
So you ain't even trippin' off tomorrow, morrow
Imagine, when life give you lemons, man
You turn the lemons into lemonade, ayy
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Maybe I can change the world
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Ahhh-ahhh-ahhh

Life's a movie in the making, yeah, yeah
I want the California sunset, [?] on the drumset
No pistol on my hips, just one chick skin sun kissed, yeah
The type that I can fall in love with (aww!)
So we can give Common a proper punishment
For one night, we been buzzin', walkin' the city
Hope the stars will come to light somethin'
But I been huntin' for my honey, she a work of art
Like Mona Lisa at the sea, hit the boulevard
And you can keep the G6, we got a rocket ship
Cruisin' the strip, makin' wishes till the comets quit
Put a life to live, but I can read between the lines and see the evil in it
Don't believe me, then redesign it, you'll see it different
If I could turn this pint of [?] to a lemon I would
Then we can pretend that we can all imagine again

Imagine if you lucky, just hit the lotto
So you ain't even trippin' off tomorrow, morrow
Imagine, when life give you lemons, man
You turn the lemons into lemonade, ayy
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Maybe I can change the world
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Ahhh-ahhh-ahhh

All you need in this life (ohh)
Just enough to make it right (ohh)

Just keep love right by your side (love right by your side)
It can happen (yeah, here we go)
Over here, over there
Never wish the fun'll start
Close your eyes and look inside and just imagine (imagine)

Imagine if you lucky, just hit the lotto (yeah)
So you ain't even trippin' off tomorrow, morrow
Imagine, when life give you lemons, man (woo-hoo!)
You turn the lemons into lemonade, ayy
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Maybe I can change the world (woo-hoo!)
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Imagine
Imagine if I changed the world
Imagine if you lucky, just hit the lotto (yeah)
So you ain't even trippin' off tomorrow, morrow (yeah-ah)
Imagine, when life give you lemons, man (yeah-ah-ah)
You turn the lemons into lemonade, ayy
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Maybe I can change the world (maybe I can change the world)
Imagine (oh!)
Imagine (yeah!)
Imagine (imagine if I changed the world)
Ahhh-ahhh-ahhh (imagine if I changed the world)
