

Sue Simmons! Watch Your Mouth

Drop Dead, Gorgeous

We all have our secrets some don't sit well
Some will turn to white lies just as well
Why can't you come clean and tell the truth?
Come clean

Always watching you watch
You're always right on time

I'm on fire
Will someone put me out?
Reaching for the stars above the clouds
I'm burning
Come clean
Tell the truth

Torched by an angel, the Devil's breath

Sop being anxious
This villain is faceless
She follows, she traces
This liquor now tasteless
I can't change this
This lack of breathing will make you sick
Under the knives where I'll make you slip.
I can't change this I can't change

A selfish heart appears kind
O love. It comes in shades of grey
It's so easy to be used by you.

Sop being anxious
This villain is faceless
She follows, she traces
This liquor now tasteless
I can't change this
This lack of breathing will make you sick
Under the knives where I'll make you slip.
I can't change this
I can't change

Torched by an angel, the Devil's breath
