Run Hitler Run

Dropkick Murphys

Hitler and Goebbels, they jumped the creek
Ain't no one seen 'em since last week
Mussolini and Hitler were playing cards
Hitler won, Duce took it hard

Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away
You better run, you better run

Yonder goes Hitler, as fast as he can
The hunt's on for the savage man
Hitler, boy, you really better jump
We're comin' for you back to front

Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away
You better run, you better run

Hitler got drunk, stayed out all night
The French women didn't treat him right
One thing's for sure, this much we know
Mr. Hitler, it's time to go

Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away

The fascist boys think they're double tough
But they just ain't tough enough
Get me a machine gun and do a song
Play to little Adolf all night long

Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, we're coming to get you
You better run, you better run
Run Hitler, run, you'll never get away
You better run, you better run
