

The Big Man

Dropkick Murphys

Let's fucking go

Well, I knew I liked The Big Man
When he kidnapped Adam Carolla
And I knew I liked The Big Man
When he ripped the chains off Kid Rock
And I knew I liked The Big Man
When he shot me with a BB
In front of fifteen thousand people
In a Warped Tour parking lot

So raise your Pringles cans up high
To the legend, the lunatic
A giant, defiant, there 'til the end
He's everybody's favorite west coast friend
So raise your cans up high (Raise 'em high)
Let's have a toast to our favorite guy
He'll fight the system 'til the day he dies
He's The Big Man from Pennywise

(Woah)

Well, we all know he loves the chaos
But around us, he's fairly tame
Yeah, the The Big Guy's wicked generous
He brought Evan to a World Series game
Stolen cars and flaming Christmas trees
Off his back, he'd give you his shirt
You see, he's all about the good times
And in most cases, nobody gets hurt

So raise your Pringles cans up high
To the legend, the lunatic
A giant, defiant, there 'til the end
He's everybody's favorite west coast friend
So raise your cans up high (Raise 'em high)
Let's have a toast to our favorite guy
He'll fight the system 'til the day he dies
He's The Big Man from Pennywise

(Woah)

And if you need your hotel room wrecked
Or a bandmate thrown through a drum set
Or a cocky rockstar bullied to humility
Guess what? We got a guy for you
You see, he's fair, but he don't fuck around
He'll set you straight, he won't let you down
To know him is to love him or to fear him
Depends on what the case may be

So raise your cans up high (Raise 'em high)
Let's have a toast to our favorite guy
He'll fight the system 'til the day he dies
He's The Big Man from Pennywise
He'll fight the system 'til the day he dies
He's The Big Man from Pennywise
