

Watch Your Back

Dropkick Murphys

Everybody's talking about revolution Everybody's talking about smash the state.
Sounds to me like the final solution Left wing, right wing, full of hate.

chorus: We don't wanna fight
'cause you tell us to
So watch your back when you attack man
we might just turn on you.

Things get worse with every hour the future fades into the past All they want is total power climbing on the backs of the working class

chorus: We don't wanna fight
'cause you tell us to
So watch your back when you attack man
we might just turn on you.

We don't wanna be part of no new religion we don't wanna be part of a political dream We just wanna get on living our lives.

chorus: We don't wanna fight
'cause you tell us to
So watch your back when you attack man
we might just turn on you.
