

Demons

Dropout Kings

I got em' running through the street, street, street, street
I think I got em' where I want em' that's what I say
Medicate, suffocate

The demons in my brain
Wish that you could all just stay up in your lane
The demons in my brain
Wish that you could all just stay up in your lane

Tryna deal with this devotion in a different way
In a sea of these emotions I just drift away
Broken heart fractured bones tryna fix my face
Shattered mind see my thoughts all over the place

Bloody Mary, Bloody Mary, Bloody Mary in the room with no lights on Dead and buried, cemetery, sins and worries playing back like a hype song
Helter skelter, body melter, high as delta off the shrooms and the right str ong
The devil has grip like a python
But my soul in the light like a pylon

My pen tryna right wrongs everytime I write wrongs, so I could never write w rong
When I right songs cause it ain't ever wrong to be right on

Bloody knuckles in the fight I'm the type dog Sweat buckets on the stage when the mic on
The way I creep into your mind like a psych ward
With these bright ideas like a light bulb

One hand on her thigh while I'm flexin
One hand on the strap like a scepter
Demons speak into my mind it's inception
Voices float through walls like a specter

So when I call on God for a blessing
He just hits me back with a lesson
And I need every piece of the shine
Tryna make a spotless mind then fight this possession
No question

The demons in my brain
I wish that you could all just stay up in your lane
The demons in my brain
I wish that you could all just stay up in your lane

The demons in my brain
Wish that you could all just stay up in your lane
The demons in my brain
Wish that you could all just stay up in your lane

One hand on the thigh while I'm flexin
One hand on the strap like a scepter
Demons speak into my mind it's inception
Voices float through walls like a specter

So when I call on God for a blessing
