

Lights Out

Dropout Kings

I'm going lights out
Dominating, no doubt
Strength in me that I've found
Try me whatever, you see me now
Gloves off, on one and I can't stop
Failure's not an option
Under the pressure, you see me now

Never turn my back to my enemies
99 problems but I got the remedy
I'll be the last shot straight to your memory
Know you remember me

I'm going lights out
Dominating, no doubt
Strength in me that I've found
Try me whatever, you see me now
Gloves off, on one and I can't stop
Failure's not an option
Under the pressure, you see me now

Used to think you'd get the best of me
I ain't tryna hear no apology

Born with nothing but my word and my one dream
That I won't blink eye to eye with my fears
All I ever really wanted was just one thing
You have a smile on your face when you shed tears
These choices that me make wake ripple through the universe
From the womb to the tomb we don't live rehearsed
The rose rises through the concrete
The sword has become me
I reach for the sky breaking every curse

Never turn my back to my enemies
99 problems but I got the remedy
I'll be the last shot to your memory
Know you remember me

I'm going lights out
Dominating, no doubt
Strength in me that I've found
Try me whatever, you see me now
Gloves off, on one and I can't stop
Failure's not an option
Under the pressure, you see me now

Used to think you'd get the best of me
I ain't tryna hear no apology
Used to think you'd get the best of me
I ain't tryna hear no apology

Sword to stone
But we were born to roam
Sword to stone like flesh is to bone
But we were born to roam and never come home
But now we've turned on our brothers

You're just like the others
Run from myself but you're taking me under

I'm going lights out
Dominating, no doubt
Strength in me that I've found
Try me whatever, you see me now
Gloves off, on one and I can't stop
Failure's not an option
Under the pressure, you see me now

Used to think you'd get the best of me
I ain't tryna hear no apology
