

I'm not a fuckin' Hercules
At least I ain't a fuckin' fiend
I work hard for my fuckin cheese
Now, hopefully you cry for me

Shut the fuck up
Everything is fucked Up
Shut the fuck up
Everyone is fucked up
Shut the fuck up
Everything is fucked up
I don't give a fuck
Fuck this stupid pit up
Everybody up

Look, all your greatest fears started unifying gears Drowning in the water, if they catch me by the pier I'll be floating with my peers, we been dying here for years
Sea of blood made of tears
Crashing on the shore
Only thing forsure we don't get fly or try to soar
Only ones who did had wings made of wax so it won't too long till they fell right back
Down to the pit where our pain coexists
We don't see eye for eye but we cut wrist for wrist
Bloodstained hands from the village of the mist
Hear the tree line scream and it ain't ventriloquists
More like the echoes of the lost causes, discarded, covered up and bombarded
Beg pardon, this cannot persist
So Before we rage against the machine we tell them this

Shut the fuck up
Everything is fucked up
Shut the fuck up
Everyone is fucked up
Shut the fuck up
Everything is fucked up
I don't give a fuck
Fuck this stupid pit up
Everybody up

Life's got me fucked up
And I, I swear to God I could die
So, let's get lit this one night
Let's raise a glass

Let's all just twist up
Let's fuck this pit up

Let's all just twist up
Let's fuck this pit up

Fuck this shit
(They don't really want it)
Man, fuck that bitch
(They don't really want it)
Don't give no shits

(They don't really want it)
Let's get shit lit

Shut the fuck up
Shut the fuck up
Shut the fuck up
I don't give a fuck
Everybody up
