Jilted from a place in the back of my mind There's no time for a reconcile Tilted in a way that I cannot define Gonna take what I know is mine

Close your eyes and watch me fly Everything I've left behind All I want is piece of mind Disconnected

How in the world did I get so free Nothing's gonna get to me 'Cause I'm far too happily Disconnected

Deny all the shame that you're feeling inside Runaway from the sense you hide Don't try we don't all suffer from lack of pride So, get back to your so called life

Close your eyes and watch me fly Everything I've left behind All I want is piece of mind Disconnected

How in the world did I get so free Nothing's gonna get to me 'Cause I'm far too happily Disconnected

All of my life answering to someone else Living to die never asked for your help Buried inside it was here once nevermore Nowhere to hide I'm still alive won't die

To get rid of this pain I gotta fight, fight To get rid of you is my right, right Take it away I don't need this anymore It's time to delay my disconnected life

Close your eyes and watch me fly Everything I've left behind All I want is piece of mind Disconnected

How in the world did I get so free Nothing's gonna get to me 'Cause I'm far too happily Disconnected

Close your eyes and watch me fly Everything I've left behind All I want is piece of mind Disconnected

How in the world did I get so free Nothing's gonna get to me

'Cause I'm far too happily Disconnected
