Dry Cleaning

Whilst traveling a parasite buried itself in my head
It took me over and it had to be removed by a specialist
It can happen to anyone at any time
Now some sounds hurt my ears

We found your lingerie after you were gone
And it made you seem so human
And it made it seem like you had hopes and dreams and plans
Sometimes it's hard to find a silver lining, eh?

No kissing
No smooching
But there was a song if I can remember it
