

No Decent Shoes For Rain

Dry Cleaning

New Zealand, France, Switzerland, Northampton, Exeter, Egypt
It won't do to cry about it
I've seen a rat
I've seen a guy cautioned by police for rollerblading
Let's smoke and drink and get fucked I don't know
Let's eat pancake

You could take control of my mind or body anytime
Why do I trust you?
The answer is I don't and I never will
Let's eat pancake

I'm bored but I get a kick out of buying things
Autonomy can be found at the shops
For me!
For me

Who are you?
That's right, you're from the seventies
I've got to travel back in time to stop this madness
Don't do this, don't do that
My poor heart is breaking
Too big for a large
Too big for a large

Hey, couch testing man!
Lay it on my fine ended car
Fry an egg on my bonnet
These lonesome evenings suck!

Oh. You drink wine and go on holiday now?
Okay! Well
Okay, well
Okay well

It's so good to meet you
But not here
Not here obviously
I've seen your arse but not your mouth
That's normal now
Lamb Sandy and Felt Mel
Especially, especially on a day like today

Can you describe the picture with me?
What are all these men carrying?
What is this toxic sludge?
I don't know

Raa raa raa
I've seen a rat
I've seen a guy cautioned by police for rollerblading
Oh!
Oh

Raa raa raa
