dua saleh

Jungle jeep
Animal
Out the gate
Never casual
Diamond piece
Had to run it up
Jeweler cut it up
Never not enough
Off the leash
Hannibal
In the heat
Flammable
Had you tweaking out ya seat
(God Bless my Philippe)

Windows down the Rover
Don't get too excited
Shopping spree on Melrose
Don't get too excited
Windows down the Rover
Don't get too excited
Rolling down them doors
You know them suicidals
Windows down the Rover
Don't get too excited
Shopping rows on Melrose
Don't get too excited
Heard you tryna link
Just know your girl's invited
Rolling down them doors
You know them suicidals

I know that the diamonds on me
They gon hold me down
Rollie, Mille, bezels on me
Glimmer from the ground
When you try to pass by
Come on, lay you
Lay you down, down
Shorty, don't you know that for you
I'm gon come back 'round

Careful baby you could fall in
Don't you worry cause I'm in control
Late night, hear your body callin'
In a second I'll be ready to go
I'll buy you the things you want
And ice you out so cold
I might just go blow a bag
I'm finna buy the store

As I watch the bodies in the middle
I can see the fire lick the metal
Tell me is this freedom, sacramental
Baby come correct, meet me on my level
Ain't no shame about it
You can let that shit go

Feel it through your body
Let me know what you on Show me what's your pleasure
Show me something untold
I don't wanna leave here feeling too alone
New boost
