

How you on my lips you must be spellbound
Got these birdies singing, making frail sounds
Girl, you caught in Lucifer Labelle town
Diaphragm of sulfur in the air, how?
Boy, you looking crooked, why you pale brown?
Must have took your shorty out them fairgrounds
Brought her to my show and she my fan now
I don't even know her, why she bow down?

Jumped into the portal, call me Hades of the Grim
No, I ain't no angel, I ain't fall in from the brim
Pretty motherfucker, I took Flacko for a spin
You should look within, have you shaking through your limbs
Pumping all this trauma to your veins until you swim
Boy, don't call your mama 'cause she sloppy on the whim
Metal to her drama 'cause her heart was made of tin
Boy, that's just the karma she accrued because of sins

Hellbound, bitch, you on my dick, you must be spellbound
Got these birdies singing, making frail sounds
Girl you caught in Lucifer Labelle town
Diaphragm of sulfur in the air now
Boy, you looking crooked, why you pale brown?
Must have took your shooter out them fairgrounds
Brought him to the show and he my fan now
I ain't even want him, why he bow down?
How, how, how?

Jumped into the portal, call me Hades of the Grim
No, I ain't no angel, I ain't fall in from the brim
Pretty motherfucker, I took Flacko for a spin
You should look within, have you shaking through your limbs
Pumping all the trauma to your veins until you cringe
Boy, don't call your mama 'cause she sloppy on the whim
Metal to the drama, she was sucking on my fin
Boy, that's just the karma you accrued because of sin

Hellbound
Why you fucking hellbound?
Bitch you on my dick, you must be spellbound
Hellbound
Got these birdies singing, making frail sounds
Now you talkin' tough
