

Watch me like you watch the television
Look at me like you're in love
You make this feel surreal
I let you take the deal, it's your idea
And we can go off script
And let them search for us
Now we so up
Somehow we end up in the wild wild west
You never know what's next, fighter jets
(You set trippin')
Even tho I know we not real
It feels like you're mine

Sunset comes around
In its final form
When it comes to time
You want more
When I'm on your line
It's more than I can muster
And I wanna vibe
In your storm

Is there anything left to ask of
When you move, you move like a dancer
Please, don't you wait, up for me
I got someone else
While you bow towards every romance
With your hips you seem to command of me
I want ease, I want more

Sunset comes around
In its final form
When it comes to time
You want more
When I'm on your line
It's more than I can muster
And I wanna vibe
In your storm
