

Fire Every Day

Dub Fx

Fire every day burning in my alleyway
Someday I'm gonna wanna fly away
Time is under way
Now tomorrow's yesterday
But today never seems to go away

The system is a mess
I feel it in my chest
my people suicidal yes they getting so depressed and feeling super stressed they acting all possessed disconnected from humanity and so I must address to focus on community and unity is wise and realize the beauty when our voice is on the line we have an opportunity to re-privatize so put your phone away let's look each other in the eyes don't look so un-distressed you know you're self-obsessed individual is immaculine you're now an narcissist so step out to the test you're one and only stress and open up your heart 'n mind and realize you're best it's time for us to think about the youth and empathize and build better future from the truth and not the lies we need to get together now and revolutionize otherwise we only ever hyper-normalize

Fire every day burning in my alleyway
Someday I'm gonna wanna fly away
Time is under way
Now tomorrow's yesterday
But today never seems to go away

(gonna make it higher)

So I look up to the sky and see the world is passing by I'm a soldier of fire I'll keep my head up high I will always shine my light upon the truth and on the lies
And offer sacred judgement on the ruling of my mind

I break away the chain from off my neck and realize That I gave away my freedom for a culture I despise

I let them wash my brain and keep me calm and satisfied
And now I'm even stronger in my spirit now watch me rise.

I'm a soldier, searching for my soul rhythm is my weapon and my lyrics is my call I'm a soldier, you can see my standing tall
I will always get back up even if you see me fall
I'm a soldier, searching for the truth
There ain't no way to win and so there ain't no way to lose.
I'm a soldier, and I'm waking up the youth YES, I'm waking up the youth

Fire every day burning in my alleyway
Someday I'm gonna wanna fly away
Time is under way
Now tomorrow's yesterday
But today never seems to go away
