

Transmission

Dub Fx

Do you hear the voices calling out
Begging you to stop and listen
Feel the tears of joy they're pouring out
Mother don't need your permission

Swing to the noise of your profound
Listen to an inner vision

Now you see the truth is all around
Tune in to this transmission;

So here I go as I cover to the beat
With the expiration of my own heartbeat

I hear a voice repeat in my ear
Like a mantra telling me I'm incomplete

There's work to do
I need a soul review
I feel frozen so I reheat

I get myself close to the fire
Sing with the choir
Right at the edge of my seat

I feel like I'm falling
I reach for the calling
I know that I'm calling (?) alone
My heart is a doorway
My mind is soaring
My mouth is pouring the song

But before I know I hit the floor

But feel the cold
From beneath the fold
I see the gold
I know I need the road
I'll eat the mould
If it means I won't be controlled

But here I am now
I understand now
We get the handouts

I need to crack down
I need to act now
Before I get slammed down

And in a way I feel the sway
Coming from the pain that stays for days and days
But I'll embrace the rain
I will never be ashamed
That's the way I bring about my change
Do you hear the voices calling out
Begging you to stop and listen
Feel the tears of joy they're pouring out

Mother don't need your permission

Swing to the noise of your profound
Listen to an inner vision

Now you see the truth is all around
Tune in to this transmission
