Dub War

step to the vibe gorra be strong in this time life is kinda short so ya got ta gerrit right we don't want to see this no more police kicking off kicking off my door all this madness got to lead to something in an out of jail an your never getting bail an you can not take the lock up anymore now your scratching in ya cell you fed up of the smell he did the jod
you pay the price
this makes me sore

when ya gerrit right dats when ya start to live a life juggling on the corner an your juggling all your life rude boy out in the night looking for a raise or will ya end up in a fight jumps in a motor to go off an make a raise he might get bust but he needs to get payed broke down the walls crash thru the window how are you living it

ruff an ready

in and out of prison
better make a new decision
so you don't care so you're a rude boy so you have no fear fear of the dark rude boy
bad boy can't sleep at night guilt will kill ya thru ya crime sinister an darkness won't come out of ya mind one more move an from this earth ya gonna step the vicious circle's like a noose around your neck not last night or was it the night before you cracked someone’s head and knocked them down to the floor you told them to get up but the body lay still an you seen their blood trickling down vicarage hill
