

I'm Really Changing

Duckwrth

Hey, lady
You get me so high
I'm really changing
Really changing
Something started
And it's alright
I'm really changing
Really changing

I know I was a dog, K9 without the mussel
My heart was is the streets, I tend the thrive in trouble
But know that I've been changing, I'm even meditating
I get so deep in my breathing, I may start levitating
Just to see what I'm on
You can have the password to my iPhone
You can check my DM's
But I'm newly changed, so don't check last weekend
Baby boy was sneaking

But I'm begging and pleading at yo' front door
Listing the reasons why we should explore
The ups, the downs, the smiles, the frowns
Now tell me if you like how that sounds

Hey, lady
You get me so high
I'm really changing
Really changing
Something started
And it's alright
I'm really changing
Really changing

I know my first attempt didn't hit the mark
I'm like a blind Cupid tryna throw some darts
I put a big ol' target on yo' big ol' heart
I wrote the sweetest song to you, it sounded like a fart
That's silly flatulence, slipping out on an accident
Truthfully, I be missing us making love ever passionate
Booty clapping like choirs in tabernacles on Nazareth
Hopping up out that kitty, got me staggering

But I'm begging and pleading at yo' front door
Listing the reasons why we should explore
The ups, the downs, the smiles, the frowns
Now tell me if you like how that sounds

Hey, lady
You get me so high
I'm really changing
Really changing
Something started
And it's alright
I'm really changing
Really changing

I wanna make you say

I wanna make you say
Ain't gotta be today
But I really wanna make you say

Hey, lady
You get me so high
I'm really changing
Really changing
Something started
And its alright
I'm really changing
Really changing
