

No Where

Duckwrth

Exchange all gods, for celebrities
And dead presidents, is the new dieties
Said we don't read scriptures, we read TMZ
So burn all your books, and buy an LCD
Exchange a good deed, for brutality
I heard dog eat dog, is the new mentality
You see the flames getting higher, blinded by the blur
You bought a first class ticket, you're going, nowhere
(You, are, nowhere...)
