Duckwrth

Been a long time
And I got a lot of things on my mind
Been a whole damn week
If time is money
I ain't gonna spend my time being cheap
No I ain't, no I ain't
No I can't for you

I done gone broke spending time with the wrong one
Trying get a lick I thought she sweet like Willy Wonka
I was like a beast always driven by my hunger
Especially when she dropped it low and pick it up like Tonka
The ass too phat, Lord
Extend your hands over the these two eyes
Either the booty is talking to me or I'm too high
I got too many things to do
I think I'm running out of time

Come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
(Now bring it back)
Come on, come on, now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back
And I'm running out of time
I'm running out of time
Time time time

Once upon a time I was talking with Tammy
She said nothing sweeter than the blossom family
I said ya damn right that's an awesome family
Now let your flower bloom on an afternoon (get down)
Five hours later I was walking with Tammy
Down Rodeo Drive she was looking so fancy
She said if you love me you would buy me this Louis Vuitton
I said boo I will see you soon
I'm gone
Just as sure as this gap in this song
Trying to penetrate my wallet while your tagging along
I only known for a week
I met you on a tweet
140 characters I think your talk is cheap
You slid in my DMs and said you wanted my physique
I said now girl that's cool I was just looking for a freak
Either the booty is talking to me
Or I'm too high
I got too many things to do I think I'm running out of time

Come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
(Now bring it back)
Come on, come on, now throwyoassout

Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back
And I'm running out of time
I'm running out of time
Time time time

As time goes ticking by I wish we could
Spend a little time
Spend a little time
Just as sure as the wind blows by I know I could
No doubt about it
No doubt about it
But there something not right about the way you move, no no
So I hopped on the right train of thought, I'll see you soon
I'll see you soon, I'll see you, hey

Come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
(Now bring it back)
Come on, come on, now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back out, baby
Come on, come on now throwyoassout
Come on, come on, don't throw your back
And I'm running out of time
I'm running out of time
Time time time

"Dude your a fucking dweeb"
