

Wake Up!

Duckwrth

I can see your a dreamer
I can see you out there sleeping
Little sunshine dreamer
In the fields the wolves are creeping
You don't you know there's creatures
Out to take yo sad little spotlight
I hope that it's your season
Hope the rain don't fall til midnight

Right now you're probably wondering
What's happening on your television screen
Please don't be alarmed
Everything is alright
But just know that the wolves
Their out tonight
Their looking for their prey
So you better do one thing
You better pray

Don't get caught off guard
They may pull your card
While you was counting them sheeps
I was here writing these bars
Momma said that I was a star
Poppa said that I was a star
Pretty woman, shiny fast cars
Running through the blvd saying

Wake up!
Wake up!
Auugh...
Wake up!
Wake up!
Auugh...

This is your wake up call
Courtesy of my fist
That purposely met yo jaw
And nigga no, I never miss
This is a courtesy warning
Know that the wolves are swarming
And know if it rains tonight
You probably won't make it til morning
Good damn
I'm the man
With the whole world in his hand
From la up to iran
We just blitzing thru the land
Good damn
I'm the man
With the whole world in his hand
If your sleeping
We're the reason
Why you woke up
Once again

Wake up!

Wake up!
Auugh...
Wake up!
Wake up!
Auugh...
Yeah

Alright you sleepers
We're gonna try this one more time
If you with me count it down
One, two, one, two, three

Wake up!
Wake up!
Auugh...
Wake up!
Wake up!
Auugh...

Wake up!
