

Let Me Go (Please Please Please)

Duke Special

Danger in the marrow
Deep inside my bones
I can feel it coming
Whenever I'm alone

And how this whole thing started
I couldn't really say
The seeds we planted years ago
Have risen up today

You've got a weird way
Of setting me free

And my heart's saying please
On a pair of bleeding knees
Please, please, please let me go

You hit me like a champion
But kept me in the ring
I'm praying for my corner
To throw the towel in

This should be an ending
In some old tragedy
But you won't stop believing
Or see it like I see

You've got a weird way
Of setting me free

My heart's saying please
On a pair of bleeding knees
Please, please, please let me go

You've got a weird way
Of setting me free

And my heart's saying please
On a pair of bleeding knees
Please, please, please let me go.
