Coming Down

Dum Dum Girls

Oh whoa-oh I take as much as I can get I don't take any regret I close my eyes to conjure up something But it's just a faint taste in my mouth I think I'm coming down I think I'm coming down By tomorrow I'll be leaving By tomorrow I'll gone If you want to tell me something You had better make it strong 'Cause I think I'm coming down (Here I go) I think I'm coming down (Here I go) I think I'm coming down (Here I qo) I think I'm coming down Here I go There I go You abuse the ones who love you You abuse the ones who won't If you ever had a real heart I don't think you'd know where to start 'Cause I think I'm coming down I think I'm coming down I think I'm coming down Yeah, I think I'm coming down Yes, I think I'm coming down Yes, I think I'm coming down
