

Evil Blooms

Dum Dum Girls

Evil blooms just like a flower
The world stays down from her high tower
It's time to judge,
It's time to cast
Put endless stones upon your past

Evil blooms
Evil blooms

From on our knees the view is clear
The kind of sky that baits & lures
Do what you want,
Do what you can
There is such bliss when you've no plans

Evil blooms
Evil blooms

Why be good!
Be beautiful & sad
It's all you've ever had
It's all you've ever had
Why be good!
Be beautiful & sad
It's all you've ever had
It's all you've ever had!

It's all you've ever had
It's all you've ever had
It's all you've ever had
It's all you've ever had
