

Sometimes

Duncan Sheik

Here's a list of things gone wrong
Please don't worry
It won't take too long
You read it somewhere
But you're on the wrong track
You're calling someone
They don't call back
You trip you fall and everyone stares
You write a song and nobody cares
Nobody's there
It doesn't seem fair

Sometimes, sometimes
The dust the haze
Sometimes, sometimes
A brighter phase
Sometimes, sometimes
Time, it disappears into the blue

Here's a list of things gone right
Rest assured it won't take all night
You looked the wrong way
But you saw such sights
You fell
You fell to greater heights
You fell
You fell to greater heights
You fell, You fell to greater heights
You found her love letters in the mail
Every song you write is a fairy tail
Sometimes you sail
Through the wind and the gale

Sometimes, sometimes
The dust the haze
Sometimes, sometimes
A brighter phase
Sometimes, sometimes
Time, it disappears into the blue

Sometimes, sometimes
The dust the haze
Sometimes, sometimes
A brighter phase
Sometimes, sometimes
Time, it disappears into the blue

Sometimes, sometimes
You turn away
Sometimes, sometimes
I catch your gaze
Time, it disappears for me, for you
