

Borderline Worship

Durand Bernarr

I know it's been goin' too far
Turnin' my head and then droppin' my jaw
Sorry if I get emotional and excited
But those lips on you look so damn inviting

How I look at you, I know I'm sinnin', but you so fine, you make me lose my religion
I go in a daze when I see your face; I just wish a chance from you to me was given

I don't see how in the things you do
Could ever make me hot and feel brand new
I look at you with an expressionless face
You almost make me forget who I praise

How I look at you, I know I'm sinnin'
But you so fine, you make me lose my religion (Jesus Jesus Jesus)
I go in a daze and that's something I can't help
(And like Destiny's Child), you make me lose my breath

I'm getting' a little too (obsessive), I'm on the edge of that borderline (worship)
I need to seek repentance (quickly)
And I gotta ask God to (forgive me)

Baby, you make wanna get down and dirty; act out as if I wasn't holy
But suga, when you stand before me, I just want to climb your walls
From the inside out, until I fall; I don't mind your tongue being inside my jaw
It's just a little somethin' my poor heart wants... from you

I'm not tryna be nasty, but just looking at you, I can tell you're tasty
Baby, I swear if you bear with me, I'll give you what your loins have been craving
I'm just being real, can you deal... with what I'm saying... to you?
