

Collide

Durand Bernarr

I've been hangin' on by my urethra, tryin' not to give it up
But the longer I deny the harder it is gettin' by Esoteric photos, ever-erupting volcano
Lord, give me the strength to keep the lava from you, babe

What I have in mind to share your brain won't comprehend
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand
What I have in mind to share your brain won't comprehend
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand

If I lay hands once again
My limbs will imitate London Bridge
I've been struggling to contain that I already said your name
But see my mind is that one percent of cells that the sanitizer didn't kill
Please forgive, I said please forgive
Harm wasn't meant

What I have in mind to share (Oh-oh) your brain won't comprehend
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand (Yo u'll fully understand)
What I have in mind to share your brain won't comprehend
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand (Oh

What I have in mind to share your brain won't comprehend
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand
What I have in mind to share (Ooh, yeah) your brain won't compr ehend (Alright)
But when our bodies finally collide you'll fully understand (Oo h-oooh)

Oh-oh, oh-oh, ayy-ayy, ayy
You'll fully understand
Oh-oh, oh-oh, ayy-ayy, ayy
You'll fully understand, understand (Ooh, yeah)
You'll fully understand
