Your submission's safe with me
I just wanna make you feel good internally
(I'll be whatever you need, don't forget about little old me)
I'm not beyond your means
But I can't stay you wouldn't feel a thing (Ooh-ooh)

No, you're not used to having company over
So let me sing a little lullaby
When I get in, I'ma help you ease your mind
Let me sing you a lullaby
Sing you a lullaby, oh yeah, alright

So let me sing a little lullaby

We both want the same thing and even got it too
Fuck what everyone thinks, it's just me and you
No need for a disclaimer, I'm no saint and you're no angel
Snatch it baby, your mind's in need of a vacation
Let it go down the road with ease
And won't say that you can trust me
If it's true then you will see (Oh, woah)
I'm all about trust, babe
