You moving so close to me
I trip over your feet
Bound to bump up to the line since we're in close proximity
You've gotten so close to me I feel you in my sleep
We can get so intertwined it's hard to tell what's you or me

Don't push or shove
I will take a nudge
You can yank me up
Correct me outta love

Don't push or shove
I will take a nudge
You can yank me up
Correct me outta love

Stepped on ya toes, toes
You know I didn't mean it
Just let go go
Ain't gon overthink
If it ain't broke broke
Sorry isn't needed
You like me close
And I like you close

Yes, because I feel like he didn't know his own strength
Because after I told him I like to be tapped on the face
I heard winding gusting and then...
Clink clink clink clink clink clink...
All along the floor, because it was like the sonic rings got knocked outta me

You're bound to knock some shit over
(I stay bumping into something)
Run into whatever that you...
(Didn't notice)
Listen, I'm gracious, not graceful
The action has never been the reason
My heart rests right by whatever intentions
There's no battle ever worth winning
When it comes to whoever I love, I stepped on yo toes!

Stepped on ya toes
You know I didn't mean it
Just let go go
Ain't gotta overthink
If it ain't broke broke
Sorry isn't needed
You like me close and I like you close
