

PSST!

Durand Bernarr

Psst, hey you
Come over, get closer
Don't need anyone to hear
What I'm tryna told ya
I'm not trying to embarrass ya
That's why I'm tryin' to keep it a whisper

Step into my office
And close the door behind
Cause what I got say is
Between you and I
Come over here I got something to tell you
Please lend me your ear
Something's going on cause you been lookin' crazy
Let's get one thing clear

Panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like

Panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like

I'm not charging this moment
To who you are in totality
I got insurance for bullshit
Once upon a time, it was me
We're reflections, extensions of each other
I keeps my word and yes I, I keeps my brother

Step into my office
And close the door behind
Cause what I got say is
Between you and I
Come over here I got something to tell you
Please lend me your ear
Something's going on cause you been lookin' crazy
Let's get one thing clear

Panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like

Panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like

(If I didn't give a damn

Then I wouldn't pull you to the side
To see your side), tell me what's happening
(I couldn't call you my friend
If I didn't say you missed a spot)
Not while you out and about with me

Panties

Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like

Panties

Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like panties
Slide you to the side like
Slide you to the side like
