

Reaching

Durand Bernarr

I need a few days
To sleep it away
Wake up and not know
Where I was in the first place
Outside is tide, so tide of me
I wanna give her the space that she really needs

I'm reaching for nothing
There is always something
To do
To do
Thought there was nothing
But there's gon be that one thing
To do
To do

I been reaching reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching
Reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching
Reaching for something
Somewhere, nowhere I been
Reaching reaching reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching reaching for something
To grasp on, so I can let go

Is there mercy for the weary?
Responsibility, don't you dare come near me
Invisibility would be my ability
I've had enough, it's so tiring
Invisibility would be my ability
I've had enough, it's so tiring

I'm asking for nothing
Yet you give something
To do
To do
I wish I had nothing
But have something
To do
To do...

I been reaching reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching
Reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching
Reaching for something
Somewhere, nowhere I been
Reaching reaching reaching for nothing
Reaching reaching reaching for something
To grasp on, so I can let go

There's no escaping
You're gonna find me something
To do...
To do...
Running to nothing

But something will be coming
For you...
For you...
When you do nothing
Understand that's something
To do...
To do...
You're always aiding
But what about what you need
For you...
For you...
