

Vacancy

Durand Bernarr

Shoulda never grew up, I ain't ask to be here, the fuck (The fuck)

Whatchu mean I gotta pay rent?

I shoulda started savin' 'round six, I tell ya

I miss the days when I would cry, and you would make it alright

Where did all the time go?

Memories, gettin' home by the streetlights

I'd trade some of these for a little rewind

Is there vacancy in a child's place?

Is there any room around for me that way? (Oh, oh, back)

Back (Back) when (When it was) it was so simple (So simple, ooh)

Tell you the truth (Truth)

Shoulda never gave up my youth (Ooh)

Mud pies, lullabies, and Saturday morning cartoons (Cartoons)

Little Miss Sally Walker, never no fun these days

She can't come out to play 'til she pays Sallie Mae

Might be nostalgic, but I know that's a lie

'Cause If I'm present (Ooh), won't have to do it twice

Is there vacancy in the child's place?

Is there any room around for me back that way?

Back when (Back when) it was (It was) so simple (So simple)

Is there vacancy in a child's place?

Is there any room around for me back that way, oh?

Back (Back) when (When it was) it was so simple (So simple)

Oh, is there anymore room?

I say, I say, is there anymore room?

Is there anymore room, yeah?

Oh-oh, oh, oh, oh, is there any (Room) for me? (Uh-huh)

Is there anymore (Room) for me? (Uh-huh)

Oh, is there anymore (Room) there for me? (Uh-huh)

Is there anymore room? (Room), yeah, yeah, yeah (Uh-huh)

Is there anymore room? (Room), oh, yeah-yeah, yeah (Uh-huh)

Is there anymore room? (Room), oh, yeah-yeah, yeah
