DURRY

I'm picking up a weird vibe
Something doesn't feel right
Something heavy's hanging in the air tonight
But maybe we can learn to find a little silver lining

I know it hasn't really been your year
But you're still here and that's worth something
I know it feels like the end of the line and
You've got no more to give
And on the outside, everybody's smiling just a little too wide
Like they're trying to hide behind
Those pearly whites
But you know they're rotting on the inside

I'm picking up a weird vibe
Something doesn't feel right
Something heavy's hanging in the air tonight
But maybe we can learn to find a little silver lining

Well, I'm on your side
I know you tried your best
But it never seemed to turn out right
I'm on your team
And I'll always be
In the front row begging for an encore

I'm on your side
I know you tried your best
But it never seemed to turn out right
Well, I'm on your team
And I'll always be
In the front row begging for an encore
