

More Dumb

DURRY

Maybe we're all just
Little piles of space dust
Floating on a rock
Flying around the sun

But when you really start to break it down
We're just little lightning bugs
Dancing on the meat
Driving our skeletons around

But I don't like those kinda thoughts
I think I've been awake too long
But I know that I can't stop

I'm freaking out
Thinking about
Everything
And nothing at all
I can't slow down
I'm spiraling out
If ignorance is bliss
I wish I could get
A little more dumb

Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb

I don't wanna think about how
Every word you've ever heard was made up by somebody else
Everything only means anything
'Cause we all agreed on the context first
What a novel concept

And all of that wiggly air's
Just tickling hairs inside of your ears
I'm holding on to hope
That when the beat drops
It'll make your head go dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb

I'm freaking out
Thinking about
Everything
And nothing at all
I can't slow down
I'm spiraling out
If ignorance is bliss
I wish I could get
A little more dumb

Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb
Dumb, dumb, dumb

Maybe it's all in my head
Maybe we're better off dead
Maybe it's all a dream
And nothing really matters in the end
Maybe I should give it up
Cauterize and cut it off
Maybe it's time for me to move on

I'm freaking out
Thinking about
Everything
And nothing at all
I can't slow down
I'm spiraling out
If ignorance is bliss
I wish I could get
A little more dumb

Dumb, dumb, dumb
A little more dumb
Dumb, dumb
A little more dumb
